© Royal Academy of Arts, London

Situated in the heart of Mayfair and opened by Queen Victoria in 1870, Burlington Gardens presents a shining example of Gothic architecture.

Home to the Royal Academy's programme of contemporary art and architecture, the Grade II listed building promises to provide an unforgettable experience for you and your guests.

Daytime Hire

Available throughout the day, the Senate Rooms offer an elegant setting for breakfasts, lunches and product launches. These light-filled rooms with full length windows and double height ceilings are a flexible space which still maintain their impressive Victorian grandeur.
