

The Keeper's House

Tucked in the corner of the Royal Academy's courtyard, The Keeper's House provides a new social space for all, be they artists or 'art curious'. The Keeper's House is available to hire, whether it's for intimate drinks receptions, a breakfast buffet, or a dining experience surrounded by walls adorned with art by our Royal Academicians.

For more information, please contact

Event Enquiries: Mayumi Tomita

Events Manager
T: 020 7300 5699
E: mayumi.tomita@royalacademy.org.uk

Restaurant Bookings: Shamsa Abdalla

Groups Booking Manager
T: 020 7300 5913
E: shamsa.abdalla@peytonandbyrne.co.uk

RA Royal Academy of Arts

Capacities

Space	Evening Reception	Breakfast Reception
Sir Hugh Casson Room	100	-
Belle Shenkman Room	40	-
Academicians Room	-	60

Timings

Evening receptions may run from 7pm until midnight and breakfast receptions in the Academicians Room between 8am until 10am.

Hire Charges

Sir Hugh Casson Room	£1,500 + VAT
Belle Shenkman Room	£750 + VAT
Academicians Room	£750 + VAT

Private Dining

We are also able to offer you the exclusive opportunity to hire part of the restaurant for a variety of celebrations. This stylish space provides a more formal dining experience for up to 46 guests for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

---

Overleaf

Entrance to
The Keeper's House

---

Clockwise from right

The Sir Hugh Casson Room; Private dining in the restaurant; the main stairs
in The Keeper's House
entrance hall; the Belle Shenkman Lounge; the Academicians Room; an evening reception in the
Sir Hugh Casson Room

